

INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR PRIVACY

We are company DX HEROES LTD, id. no. 11892468, with registered office at WC2H9JQ Covent Garden, London, 71-75 Shelton Street, and we as a controller want to inform you about processing of personal data. In this policy, we will describe you, how we handle your privacy and whether we collect some personal data about you.

We created application called Pipeliner, which is available on AppStore for your Mac. This application runs only on your Mac and we do not collect, share or process any of your personal data. As this application runs only on your Mac, there is no cloud used for backup or any personal data processing for marketing purposes. All of inserted data are solely stored in your Mac. We also do not process any data about your device, crash reports etc.

The only way how we may process your personal data is when you contact us via Slack or e-mail address and ask us for support or ask us for any other information. In this situation, we will process your Slack account or e-mail address solely for the purpose of replying you and helping you solve your issue. After solving issue or replying to your question, we will no longer intentionally process your personal data. We also do not share this data with anyone, except our workers and employees.

However, we want to be as transparent as possible, so if you have any question, or if you want to exercise some of your rights in relation to the collected information, please do not hesitate and contact us on info@dxheroes.io.

You have right of access to personal data, right to rectification, right to erasure, right to restriction of data processing, right to object to processing and also right to file a complaint to supervisory authority with respect to personal data processing.
